

You can create the Gerber file by the following:

1. Right click at Extract, then Add extraction

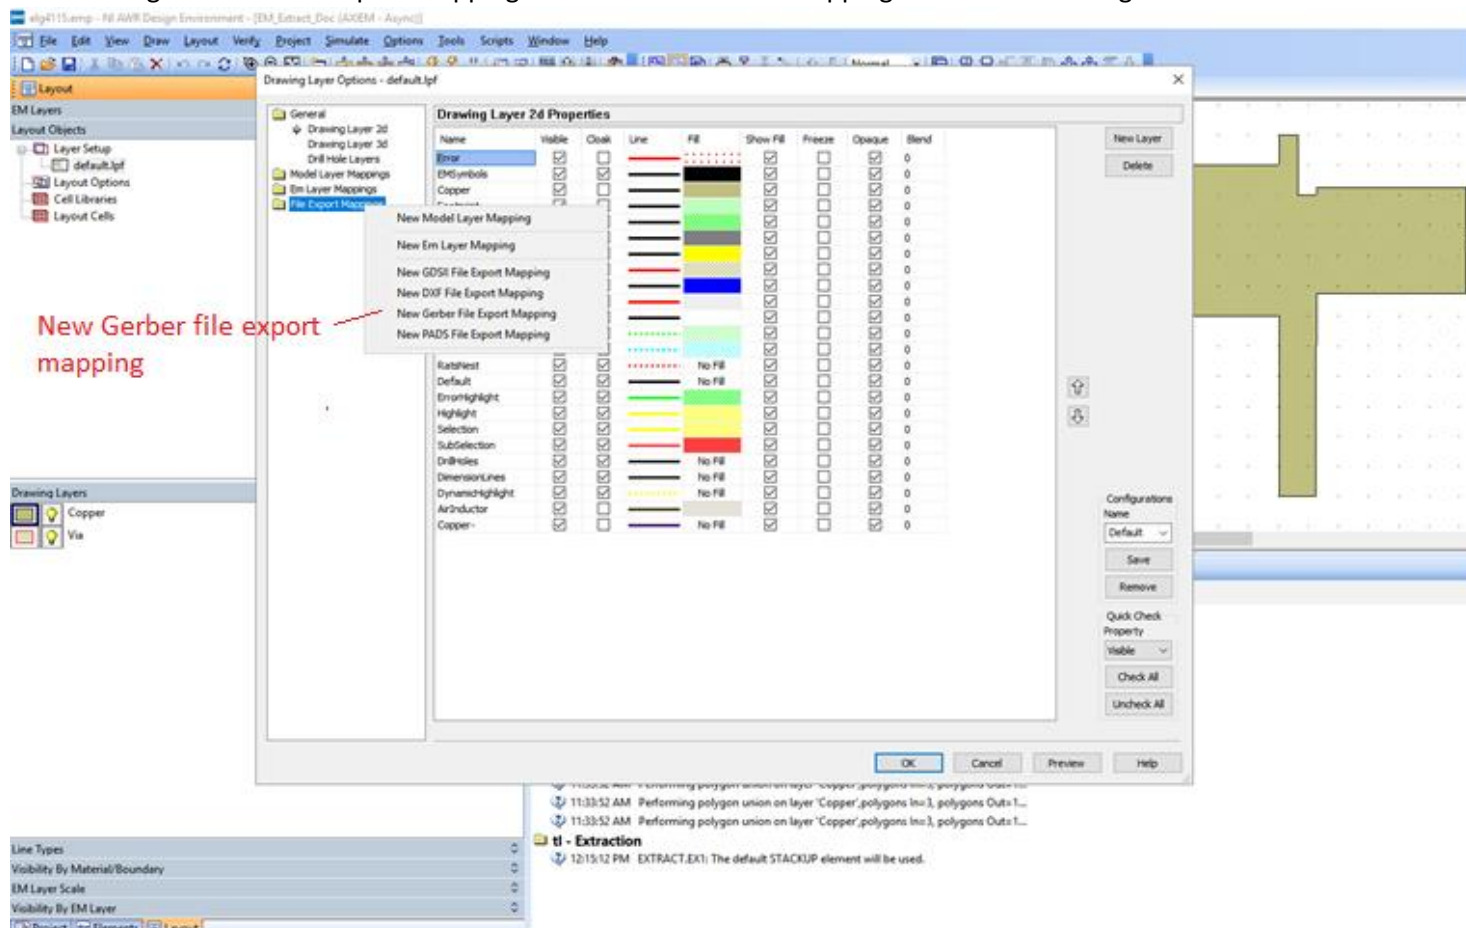

- From the bottom menu, select Layout, then click at default.lpf

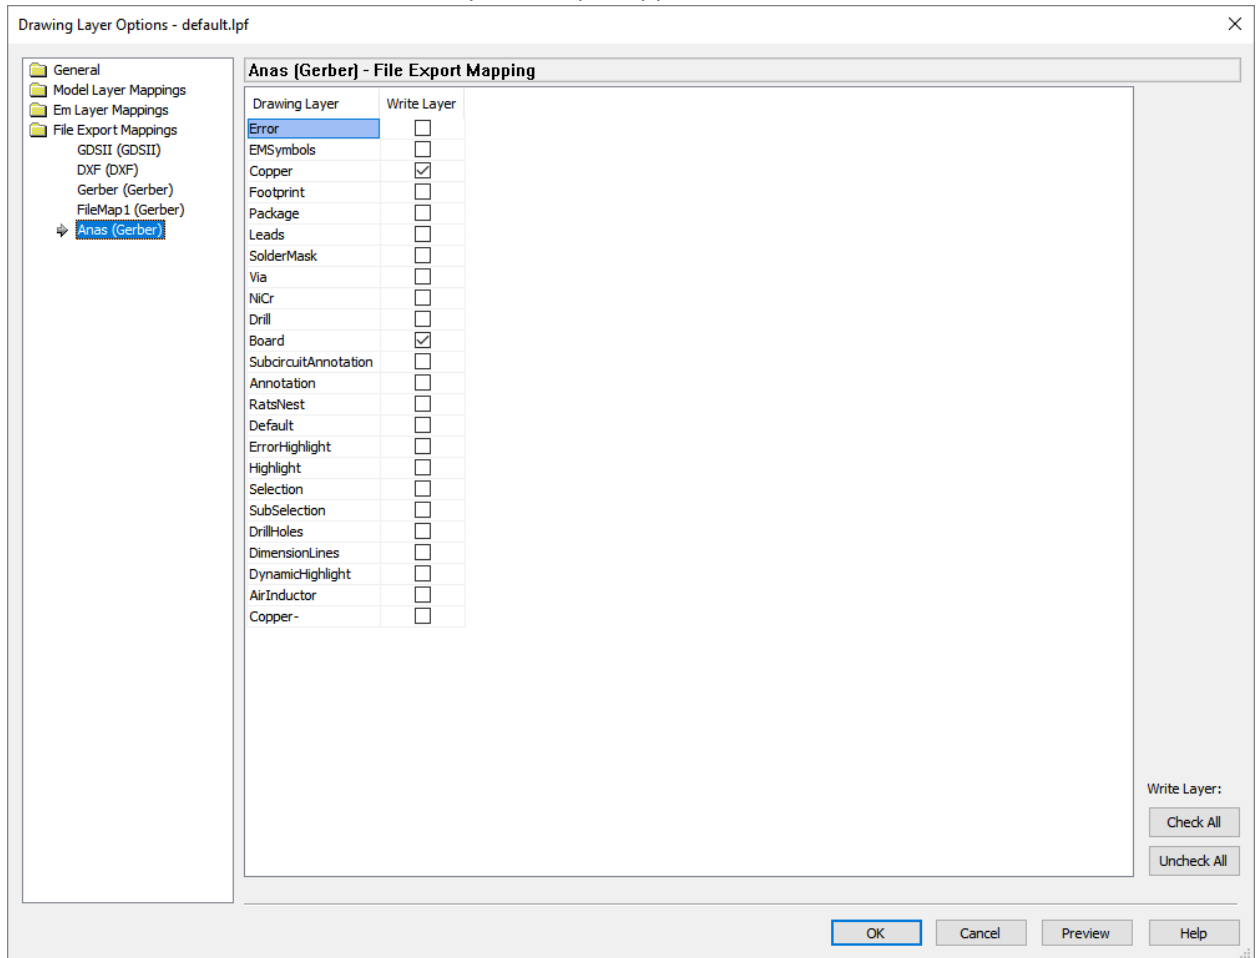

Layout

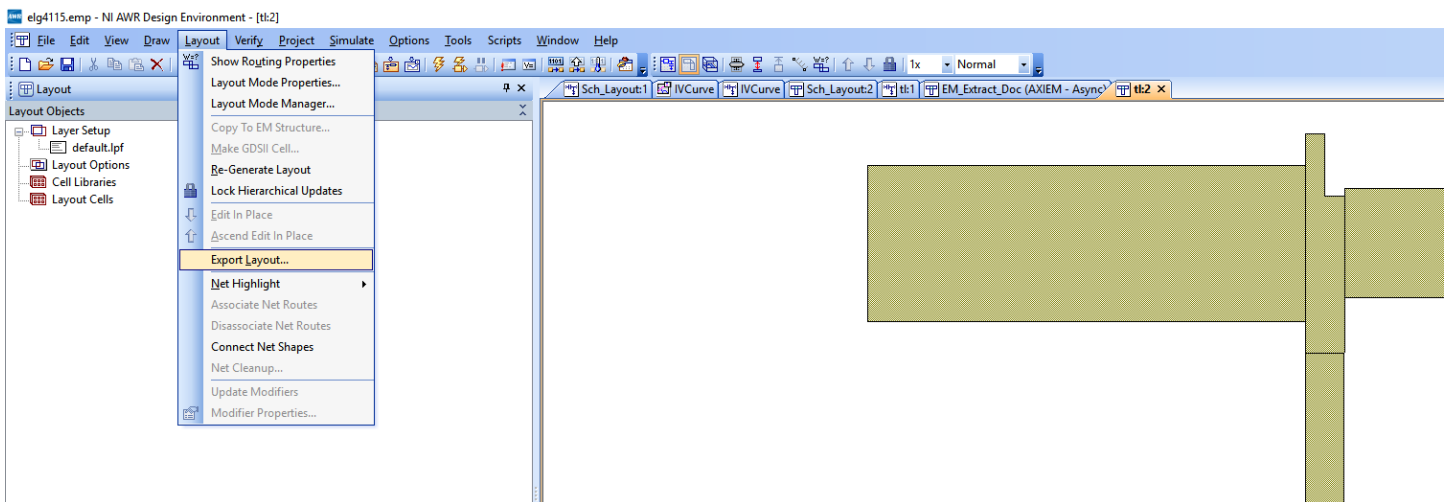

3. Right click at File Export Mappings and add new Gerber mapping file as the following

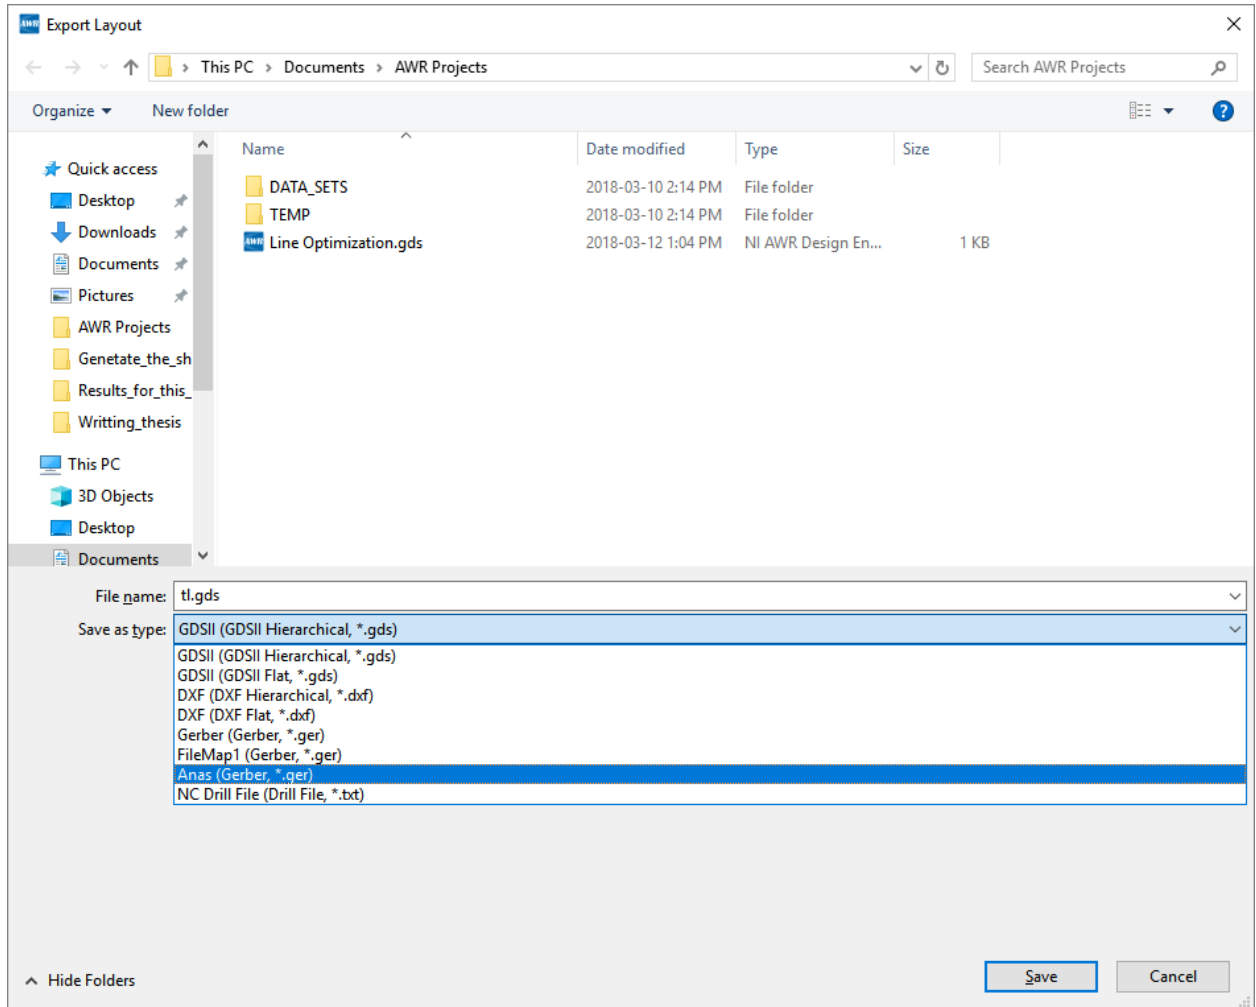

4. Rename the file and unclick all write layers except Copper and Board the click OK.

5. Go to layout windows then from the top menu click on Layers and select export layer

6. From the export layer popup window chose your file name.ger from save as type as show below:

Then click save.

You have the Gerber file.